To Whom It May Concern:

We have been working with Marshall Spevak for over 10 years. During this time he has developed advertising copy for us to be used in the magazines we were advertising with, and in which he was selling space. We were so impressed with his ability to grasp the subject matter and translate that into sales literature we commissioned him to develop our product and sales brochures. This led to creating a whole new look for our company, which we are very happy with!

We have received numerous unsolicited comments from sales representatives and customers complementing us on the appearance of our literature and presentation. To this end, Marshall has effectively become our “advertising agency” – not only recommending media, but also creating it.

Marshall is a very bright young man who readily adapts to different challenges and has the ability to grasp technology and present it in an understandable and professional way.

In short, Marshall is an asset to his profession and will benefit those who associate with him.

Sincerely
